

Nutrition and History in the Twentieth Century

Wednesday, 15th September 2010

Venue: Manson Lecture Theatre, London School of Hygiene & Tropical Medicine, Keppel Street.

Programme

9.30 - 10.00 am	Registration and coffee
10.00 - 10.15 am	Welcome and introductions: aims of the conference.
10.15 - 12.45 am	Session 1: Nutrition Archives
10.15 - 10.45 am	Victoria Cranna and Richard Meunier (LSHTM and London Hospital): The Nutrition archive at LSHTM.
10.45 - 11.15 am	Amanda Engineer, (Wellcome Library) Nutrition archives in the Wellcome library
11.15 - 11.30 am	Coffee
11.30 - 12.45 pm	Past and current nutrition research at LSHTM: Philip Payne; Anne Hill; Joe Millward; Liza Draper; Suzanne Filteau
12.45 - 1.45 pm	Lunch
1.45 - 3.15 pm	Session 2: Historians and Nutrition (1)
1.45 - 2.15 pm	David Smith (Aberdeen) The engagement and disengagement of Major Greenwood in nutrition'
2.15 - 2.45 pm	Anne Hardy 'Death on the Nile: the LSHTM and research into enteric pathogens after World War II'.
2.45 - 3.15 pm	Tim Lang (City University) Title tbc
3.15 - 3.30 pm	Tea
3.30 - 5.15 pm	Session 3: Historians and Nutrition (2)
3.30 - 4.00 pm	John Manton (LSHTM) "The Gambia Experiment, 1946-1950: agronomy and nutrition at the sunset of empire"
4.00 - 4.45 pm	Sander Gilman (Emory) 'Epidemics of Famine and Obesity: China as The Modern World'
4.45 - 5.15 pm	Final discussion